ELI students must meet the conditional admission requirements. Students do not need to take the TOEFL or IELTS exams, but they must achieve the required English proficiency level to attend and be successful at one of our partner schools.

ADVISORY ABOUT VARIABLE ENROLLMENTS

Enrollment numbers in our 2-week and 4-week programs vary from month to month. If our placement tests indicate that a student's English proficiency level does not permit placement in the original 2-week or 4-week program, we will place the student in 2 weeks or 4 weeks of study in a corresponding program of 20, 15, or 10 hours per week. When this happens, the 2-week or 4-week program will have the features described for the new program, not the features described for the original program. The hours, tuition, and fees for the student's 2-week or 4-week program will remain the same.

*ADVISORY ABOUT LEVEL REQUIREMENTS

Only students who test into high-intermediate and advanced levels on UC San Diego ELI in-person placement exams will be accepted into the 2- and 4-week Academic English, Business English, English for Engineering and Technology, English for Pharmaceutical Sciences,

Students who do not qualify for the English language programs stated above will transfer to Conversation and Fluency. When Conversation and Fluency is not offered, students testing lower than high-intermediate will receive a combination of classes to ensure 20 hours or 15 hours per week for two weeks or four weeks. Students who do not qualify for full participation in the Academic English program will be scheduled for private or semi-private instruction with ELI teachers as needed for an additional fee of $500 USD per 2-week session or $1,000 USD per 4-week session.

Through my program, I volunteer with two San Diego organizations: ActivCare and the Ocean Discovery Institute. Volunteering changed my thoughts about San Diego because I saw how much the people here take care of each other. I have met new people of different ages and learned many things from them, like how to be passionate and happy. Through my volunteer work, I practice English more than before and sometimes the local people correct my language. I enjoy speaking with them.

UC San Diego Extension courses (many academic areas) and many more...

Enrollment is on a space-available basis

Enrollment in all classes is on a space-available basis and requires instructor and/or departmental approval after the student arrives. If there are no available spaces, the instructor may require that the student wait for several days to see if any other students drop the class before enrolling a UPS student. Many class enrollments are not confirmed or processed until the second or third week of the quarter. It is especially difficult to get enrollment approvals for first-choice classes in our prestigious Computer Science department.

*Important information about choosing classes

UPS students may not enroll in graduate business courses at the Rady School of Management or any courses in the School of Medicine or the School of Pharmacy. In addition, lesson-based courses in Music are not available to visiting students.

It is important to be flexible in your course selection and include a list of 12 or more classes per quarter that you would like to take when applying for admission to the UPS program. For a complete list of all UC San Diego courses please see the "Schedule of Classes" section at: students.ucsd.edu

For a list of UC San Diego Extension course offerings please see: extension.ucsd.edu.

Students may also enroll in the UPS program in order to complete one or more of UC San Diego Extension's part-time professional certificate programs.

Tuition does not include optional student recreation fee, any required course lab fees, or additional premium tuition for certain technical courses.

Tuition $7,800 USD

SIMON MIDVEDT
NORWAY

My time in San Diego has been one of the best years of my life. I would say that the reason for this is not that the experience lived up to my expectations, but rather that the experience was so different from my expectations – and I mean that in a good way. One experience that I think illustrates my point perfectly was having lunch at the Faculty Club with my professor and three other students in my class. I could never have imagined being in such a small and friendly learning environment, let alone getting to eat at one of the most prestigious places on campus! Since I specialize in bionanotechnology, I have taken different Biology classes. One specific class I took was Foundations of Bioinformatics, which was by far the best class I have ever taken.

19 Summer University Program I or II (5 Weeks)

The 5-week Summer University Programs are for students who have a strong academic background and who would like to take a full-time or part-time schedule of credit-bearing Summer Session courses at UC San Diego. The study workload is very rigorous. A schedule of 8 units (usually two classes) is considered full-time study. Students must achieve above-average final grades in all coursework ("B" or better).

Tuition $4,925 USD (part-time)

Tuition $6,075 USD (full-time)

When I finish with my studies here and in Sweden, I will start looking for jobs in HR. YING-TING WANG TAIWAN

Although I had studied in a similar field in my home country, I never had that many practical learning experiences until I came to San Diego. GENERAL INFORMATION

HOW TO APPLY

Download the International Programs application form at ip.extension.ucsd.edu. Click on the “apply now” button.

WHEN TO APPLY

It is best to apply 12–16 weeks before the program start-date to allow enough time for us to process your application and for you to make your visa and travel arrangements.

MINIMUM AGE REQUIREMENT

With the exception of our Youth Programs, you must be 18 years old to enroll in our international programs. Seventeen-year-old students may be admitted when living with an adult guardian or parent. For more information please contact ipadmission@ucsd.edu. Guardianship services are available through Family Abroad Homestay (fahomestay.com) for an extra fee.

PAYMENT

Total fees and tuition must be received in our office 30 days prior to the published program start-date. Accepted methods of payment: cash, credit card (VISA/MasterCard/ AMEX/Diners Club/JCB/Discover), traveler’s checks, personal check, money order, cashier’s check (drawn in U.S. currency on a U.S. bank), or bank-to-bank transfers using Western Union Business Solutions online. We cannot accept payment by bank wire for the application fee or express mail fee. Please pay these fees by credit card or check (U.S. bank only). It takes 10–15 business days for payments to be applied to your account. It is important to talk with your bank before sending credit card details because payments made by credit card are sometimes delayed due to daily credit card limits. Due to these delays, we strongly recommend that you or your agent complete payment of all tuition and fees at least 30 days before the program start-date to ensure timely receipt and recording of payment and to avoid delays in the beginning of your program.

FEES FOR LATE ARRIVAL

Students who arrive after 4:00 p.m. on the program’s published start-date will be charged a $200 Late Arrival Fee. The first day of the program is the published start-date in our brochure and on our website.

CERTIFICATES

Certificates with the UC San Diego university seal are awarded upon successful completion of your program.

STUDENT VISAS

UC San Diego Extension International Programs is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students. We issue the Form I-20 to students who meet our admission requirements and who provide evidence of sufficient financial verification, so that students can apply for an F-1 student visa at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate.

If you plan to apply for an F-1 visa, please complete the I-20 Request section on page A4 of the application form and provide signatures and a statement of financial verification as indicated.

If you are not sure which kind of visa you need, we recommend that you ask either your local counseling source or the U.S. Embassy or Consulate for information. You may also contact our office at ipinfo@ucsd.edu.

WITHDRAWALS AND NON-REFUNDABLE FEES

The non-refundable, non-transferable fees are the following: application, express mail, bank-to-bank transfer, program change, and late arrival. Students who apply through an agency are subject to the agency’s refund policy, and they will receive any refund through their agency and not from UC San Diego. All refund requests must be in writing. All fees are subject to change. Please ask about current fees at the time of withdrawal or change of program.

Note: We recommend paying tuition and fees by credit card. If you cancel or withdraw from a program, a refund to a credit card takes just 7–10 business days. A refund to you by any other means can take 5–6 weeks to process, plus 4–10 weeks for overseas mail delivery.
